

Rez Band, So In Love With You

Somewhere in Scotland or Wales I met you in heather,
Under starlit skies - was it in November?
A dream, a thought, a whisper there,
All I know is: now I know you care,
Somewhere in time I realised.

What can I say, can I do?
I'm so in love with you, oh.

Somewhere in time I realised how lost I'd been,
Blackout on the moors, taunting northern wind,
Rain soaked daybreak arriving at land's end,
Dawn paints storm clouds,
You coloured me your friend.

What can I say, can I do?
I'm so in love with you,
My Jesus, what can I say, can I do?
Oh, I'm so in love with you.

Your name: my reason for being,
If love is, so are You,
Blue tide, mirror bright,
My heart reflects your truth,
A spark, a prayer beyond the lee,
I found joy in your reality,
Jesus, I'm so, so in love with you.

What can I say, can I do?
I'm so in love with you,
My Jesus, what can I say, can I do?
Oh, I'm so in love with you.
