

Rhapsody, Land Of Immortals

Hear the silence of the winds making your own destiny go and face the mirror of their sin Only brave hearts found the way breaking all the dragon's spell cross the Argon's glade with heart in hand

Land of immortals I wait for my day
to reach the wisdom of your skies Land of immortals you must belong to me from here to eternity

And between Elgard's hills near the ancient ruins of Kron you will face the trick of the old dwarf To obtain the second key you have to cross them bloody sea where the thirst of Tharos never ends

Land of immortals I wait for my day
to reach the wisdom of your skies
Land of immortals you must belong
to me from here to eternity

Holy force of wisdom spread through all the air I shall breathe you forever to end this epic holy quest My way will be hard but I would do all to reach the valleys where true heroes ride beyond the ivory gates

Land of immortals I wait for my day to reach the wisdom of your skies Land of immortals you must belong to me
from here to eternity

Fight and kill the devils sons for the safe of our world
Live to light the shadows of the sin
Only this can be your way
You must keep your faith alive to behold the key for Holy Light

Land of immortals I wait for my day
Knowing the secret of the skies
Land of immortals you must belong to me
From here to eternity

Hell on earth another day no more justice only pain But they'll pay in agony for all You must fight your crusade with your mind with your hands

Cause you are a son of Mother Earth

Land of immortals I wait for my day
Knowing the secret of the skies
Land of immortals you must belong to me
From here to eternity

Fight and kill the devils sons for the safe of our world
Live to light the shadows of the sin
Only this can be your way
You must keep your faith alive to behold the key for Holy Light

Land of immortals I wait for my day
Knowing the secret of the skies
From here to eternity
