

Rhapsody, Rage Of The Winter (Symphonic & Original Demo Length Version)

Algalord fire burns in his veins
Master of wisdom, master of faith Glorify his name!

Snow on the portals to magic dreams
there where the old wizard spellbinds his king Fire and icelords, the white realm's queen are planning the battle between frost and wind

Rage of the winter mould the horizon
cover the mountains forest and lakes Rage of the winter magical wonder enchanted fury majestic force

In the dark forest the march of black knights...
Echoes of warcry from day until night
The empire is calling the ride of the brave the Loregard warrior... the black demons' pain

Rage of the winter mould the horizon
cover the mountains forest and lakes
Rage of the winter magical wonder
enchanted fury majestic force

Face me Akron king of terror Come now here to taste my blade

Algalord fire burns in his veins
Master of wisdom, master of pain
Glorify his name!

Snow on the portals to magic dreams
there where the old wizard spellbounds his king Fire and icelords, the white realm's queen
are planning the battle between frost and wind

cover the mountains forest and lakes
Rage of the winter magical wonder
enchanted fury majestic force
