

Rhapsody, Riding The Wings Of Eternity

Wise and mighty you are force of the earth Fierce becomes the sea at your command Winds of the south winds of the north let me hear your call Blow on my heart filling my soul
give me the force of the storm

For all of the time I will ride be my guide
I will follow your sign for a just life
Winds of the south winds of the north
let me hear your call
Blow on my heart filling my soul
give me the force of the storm

Riding the holy winds, winds of eternity
I'll fight you forever nightmares sons
