

Rheostatics, Dead Is The Drunkest That You Can

Martin Tielli

Dead is the drunkest that you can get,
Though I haven't got that drunk yet.
I'm just so mean and wild, and I'm stung up the spine.

Where are you going tonight? Where are you going tonight?
I'm gonna get into a fight,
Kick some heads around. Can you believe it?
What's it like doing that?
How come? What's it like? What's it like?
I don't really think about it.
It just feels good.

And dead is the drunkest that you can get,
Though I haven't got that drunk yet.
I'm just so mean and wild...
