

Rheostatics, In It Now

Tim Vesely

Why plan instead of living life?
You worked it out ahead and put it behind.
Better look around while you're inside.
It beats looking down from angel's height.
You're in it now.

I couldn't call it anyways.
I've seen my best come from my mistakes.
Who laid these best of plans
With dirt and flowers layin' over them?
You're in it now.

Head-on with the world.
You wrote it off and moved along.
Missintention takes a turn,
Leaves you right where you belong.

Why plan instead of living life?
You worked it out ahead and put it behind.
You're in it now.
