

Rheostatics, Ok By Me

Dave Bidini

I want to unplug the system, get a brand new start.
If we end this, so will end my heart.
Anything you do is OK by me.
I don't want to see you clearly.
You are seeing right through me.
Anything you want, I want it too.
I don't want this known by any.
You are laughing with your friends.
Every time you call, it calls my name.
I want to unplug the system, get a brand new start.
If we end this, so will end my heart.
