

Rhesus, Shooting Star

at the party writing silly words on a wall the bleeding memories your pretty face coming down the hall it's alright it's alright i'm just a little tired well come on, look at me i can smile if you want me to i could even kill you shooting star
okay okay
okay okay
he's just a lonely boy sadly looking at this lovely toy you can blame me if you want to
you can't get back anyway
shooting star
okay okay
okay okay
he's just a lonely boy sadly looking at this lovely toy (if you don't get it back, you gotta let it out)
