Rhesus, Sorry For This

Unfortunately, I am going down and I'm not sure if I wanna take you there People, obviously will think of me that I try to make my life more exciting That complications get me hight and help me sail thought the lonely streets The may be right

And I'm sorry for this but I don't wanna take you home Yeah it's a jungle out there but you got to go alone We'll never make it 'Cause in the end I'd spoil it No matter what they say yeah it's gonna be okay

And when I think of it I feel like digging a hole in the groung, deep where no one would hear me call So please don't blame me I am now a better man and don't wanna see you crying Don't you think we are fine? Yeah

yeah it's gonna be okay yeah it's gonna be okay yeah it's gonna be okay yeah it's gonna be okay
