

Rhesus, Sugar Kid

make sure to give yourself the room you need to breath especially if you've been going round and round in circles unexpected events are likely to enter the scene and this time the choices and outcomes in this situation are yours now you know it's true, 'cause you cannot afford it everyday and you keep tryin' tryin' tryin' like a sugar kid and we keep tryin' tryin' tryin' tryin' waking up thoughts are laced with such heavy emotions and i have no fucking control over other people's feelings creative talents appear to have gone on vacations oh please pull me into your beautifull mess again and again and again
now you know it's true, 'cause you cannot afford it everyday
and you keep tryin' tryin' tryin' like a sugar kid
