

Rhett Akins, That Girl

Green light turnin red, I slowed down, turned around, looked in the window next to me.

She took my breath away

Red light turnin green, her blue eyes meet mine, she smiles and there goes destiny drivin away from

Now i can't stop thinkin, can't stop wonderin, can't stop wishin i'd done somethin.

That girls got me lookin over my shoulder

Gotta have her and i havent even told that girl.

Cant let go and i cant hold her

Now that ive seen her i cant get over that girl.

Grey skies turnin blue, i walk through the front door and out on the dance floor there she is.

My second chance i can't miss. good luck turnin back, i was waitin on a slow song, i waited too long

Now i can't stop thinkin, can't stop wonderin, can't stop wishin i'd done somethin.

That girls got me lookin over my shoulder

Gotta have her and i havent even told that girl.

Cant let go and i cant hold her

Now that ive seen her i cant get over that girl.

Ain't got a name, ain't got a number, no way out from the spell i'm under.

That girls got me lookin over my shoulder

Gotta have her and i havent even told that girl.

Cant let go and i cant hold her

Now that ive seen her i cant get over that girl
