

Rhian Benson, Invincible

I am invincible
You can't break me down
It is impossible
I'm the strongest girl in town
I have the fortitude of at least 1000 men
My friend I'm warning you
But you just will not relent

What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?
What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?

I am incredible
I have no Achilles heel
Baby, it's laughable
My spirit you could steal
I'm like the falling tide, you can't rescue me
I will roll back at night
So please just leave me be

What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?
What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?

But late at night
You find my soft spot
I say my lies
And feel my soul rot
Why do you think
That you are just what
I desire?
I feel my heart drop

What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?
What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know?

What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know, don't you know?
What do you think you're doing to me
Loving me into your enemy?
What do you think you're trying to pull
Don't you know I'm invincible?

You can't hurt me, I'm not going to fade, you can't hurt me...
