Rhodes Happy, If So

I ask you

Now tell the truth

I ask you

Was it worth the price you paid?

If so...

I know you loved me

Darling

But I need to know

Did you mean to hurt me so?

If so...

Go away way very far away, take your leave I'll never hate you, I'll never think of you

And I'll never grieve Did you want it all?

Freé love

Did it satisfy?

Was it your intentions to deceive?

If so...

You made me happy

You made me cry

You gave me hope

Was my happiness a lie?

If so...

Go away way very far away, take your leave

I'll never hate you, I'll never think of you

And I'll never grieve

I'll never grieve the loss

I ask you

Now tell the truth

I ask you

Was it worth the price you paid?

lf so..
