

Rhodes Happy, Where Do I Go?

I stepped on a life
A living emotion
I murdered the concept of devotion
Oh lord..lord..let me die
Or let me live not another lie
I crushed a soul
A soul like mine
Oh lord, what was in my mind?
Oh lord
Where..where do I go from here?
Oh lord..oh lord
Let me get it back
The heart inside
Let me live again
Give me back my pride
All the faith that you had
Can be born again
Despite the bad ways of the girl
With the purest of hearts
Can you believe she's making a start?
Baby I want to live
I'm not ready to die
Don't want to make my precious few cry
Oh lord
Where..where do I go from here?
Oh lord..oh lord
Oh lord while I'm young
Don't take the breath from my lungs
I will start again
Oh babe with all of my friends
They will trust in me lord
Until the very end
I stepped on a life (I stepped on a life)
A living emotion (A living emotion)
I murdered the concept of devotion
Oh lord
Oh lord..lord
Let me die or let me live
