

Rhomb Frenzal, Everything's Fucked

Head is up your asshole as you move along
Walk around pretending that there's nothing wrong
Don't like thinking about who's getting your rent
Environment, religion, or the government
My car's running well on human blood
Olympics built on toxic mud
Who's gonna keep it all clean and tidy?
And who plays keyboards in Killing Heidi?

Not trying to tell you to do nothing about it
Something to say don't say it shout it
Used to think the worst think was my footrot
Stupid me, now my heart stopped

Now everything is, everything's fucked

Everyone searching for someone to believe
Everyone addicted to real TV
Environmental fuck-ups every day of the month
What happens when the prime minister's a racist cunt?
The gap is ever widening the rich and the poor
People go to prison just for breaking the law
TV's not the same without Mike Whitney
Well roll me over and call me Britney

Now everything is, everything's fucked

Not trying to tell you to do nothing about it
Something to say don't say it shout it
Used to think the worst thing was my chest cough
Stupid me, now my heart stopped
