

Rhonda Vincent, Heartbreakin' Old Achin' Blues

On the road so far from home
It's a lonesome night, I'm all alone
I ain't got nothin' left to lose
Except these heartbreakin' old achin' Blues

Chorus
She's waitin' there, I can see her now
Two years today, we took our vows
It's a hard, hard life
But I'm tryin' to
Lose these heartbreakin' old achin' Blues

When I close my eyes

I can see her there
Her ruby lips and her dark brown hair
As her face comes into view
Can't keep these heartbreakin' old achin' Blues

Chorus

She's waitin' there, I can see her now
Two years today, we took our vows
I'm heading home and soon I'll lose
These heartbreakin' old achin' Blues

These heartbreakin' old achin' Blues
