

Rhubarb, Landslide

I dont wanna talk im tired of making up
All we seem to do is scream and shout
I dont wanna sleep im tired of waking up
All they seem to do is scream and shout

If this is the end im taking over
This is the first time i've been out
What feels like so long i've been let down
Feels like a landslides taking apart of me
And but i never found

If this the end then i want you all to know
If this the end im gonna cash my ticket in
I've tried my best but i just cant seem to change, a thing
You want us all to stand but what's that mean?

If this is the end im taking over
This is the first time i've been out
What feels like so long i've been let down
Feels like a landslides taking apart of me
And but i never found
Feels like the first time
First in a long time

It's over
It's over now
It's over
It's over now
She says, she says, i wanna feel like im part of it
She says, she says, i wanna know what it feels like
I wanna know what it feels like
Shine your light down on me
Shine your light down

I got somethin' to say to you
It's the word of light
Somethin' to say to you
That im dyin'
You, somethin' to say to you
Its word of, word, im fine
Somethin' to say
But i can't
Just that i...
Say to you
Where do i start
