

Rhubarb, New York

One chance for singing
To lose ourselves in such a simple melody.
One love worth saving
Is worth a million troubles if we make it.

[Chorus]

In New York, can't find me
New York, New York

One life worth living
Could save us all or lose its way completely
It's alright, and it's OK
To find a little peace of mind and hope it stays

In New York, can't find me
New York, New York
New York, has her timing
New York, New York

Empty ourselves in this city.
Spend every wish on the way.
It leaves you with nothing to swing from.
But it's all right

New York, can't find me
New York, New York
New York, has her timing
New York, New York

I can't find, it when im in New York City
I can't findit.
I can't find, it when im in New York City
