

RhVibe, Lying With You

The day has just begun
The light is from the sun
The blinds are open wide
The light shines in your eyes
I feel your hand take mine
And you know that now it's time
I can feel your love grow stronger
But you cannot hold me no longer
When the sun
Rises the next day
I'll be gone
And this time
I cannot say for how long
Oh no....

The sun
Has been my friend througout the years
But now
All he brings are tears

Well I wish he
Would just spend
One more night asleep
And let me
Live the time of my life
But I know that
Tommorow
He'll be there for me
And then I'll
Have to say goodbye
