

Rhyn, The Only Place

Falling under, deep inside my own head
Resurrecting the thoughts I thought were dead
I'm drowning in this endless sleep
Watch me sink beneath the deep, without you

Feel the frostbite, consuming all my skin
Inner soundstorm, with no-one listening in I'm lost, I'm trapped and I am told
All I can do is feel this cold run me through

Cos I can't tell what is fake from what is real
Without you I can't feel

'Cos the only place I feel at home is inside you
The only place I'm not alone
The warmth in you's the only place that I can be, that I can feel at home
So see my face and know I lied when I said I tried
And found the only place

Winter's coming, it's spreading everywhere
Fields of darkness, of solitude and there
You'll find me in an open grave
Calling out for you to save my soul now

Oh won't you take me by the hand and lead me through this mist
Without you I don't exist

'Cos the only place I feel at home is inside you
The only place I'm not alone
The warmth in you's the only place that I can be, that I can feel at home
So see my face and know I lied when I said I tried
And found the only place

The only place, the only place

'Cos when our bodies intertwine I never feel the cold
'Cos I know I've touched your soul

'Cos the only place I feel at home is inside you
The only place I'm not alone
The warmth in you's the only place that I can be, that I can feel at home
So see my face and know I lied when I said I tried
And found the only place
