

Rialto, Love Like Semtex

It's only friction that causes all the sparks - they come between us and blow the world apart. It's only

And now there's nothing left, just another twisted wreck, with love like Semtex.

Like a dud firework that goes off in your face, we should have lit the sky but we burned down the world.

And now there's nothing left, just another twisted wreck with love like Semtex. More like a letter bomb

Now there's nothing left, just another twisted wreck with love like Semtex. More like a letter bomb

Goodbye and all the best, with love like Semtex,

With love like Semtex, with love like Semtex...
