

RICH BRIAN & CHUNG HA, THESE NIGHTS

she tell me settle dawn who does it all mean?
anything you want, baby, give it all to me I can be your baby tonight you can be my lady alright
we can drive up
maybe end up in the hills
I do a lot of things
these nights /2x
they control me
you control me

you know that I move like that you know that I love to fast you know I have sleepless nights I can not dream you right now you love me, you want me you need me, you see me and I never stop loving you so don't tell me to leave, cause I won't a bowl full of holes in the door baby, grab the keys and your coat when you're around me it's lost

we can drive up
these nights /2x

said: who's gonna do it like me ssaid: Who's gonna love you like me
