

Rich Charlie, You Never Really Wanted Me

(A. Rich)

You never really wanted me

Now I can see

Yes I can see

You took your love and ran away from me

You've gone and now you're back

What do you want from me?

Standing there

Please don't cry over me

After all you never cried for me before

Why start now?

Isn't it a little late for that now girl

Don't go feeling sorry for yourself

Remember I loved you

I loved you

I never knew the games we played

Had such a lasting grip upon the plans we made

I was busy laughing waiting for the day

Now our time is gone

And there's nothing left to say

Standing there

Please don't cry over me

After you never cried for me before...
