

Richard Hell And The Voidoids, Who Says?

I saw what I had so I got I got mad so I guess I went bad so

Now I search for new endeavors push my buttons wear my levers

(Chorus)
Who says it's good good good to be alive?
Same ones who keep it a perpetual jive.
Who says it's good good good to be alive?
It ain't no good it's a perpetual dive.

There's nothing to win by this sort of an outcry
Oh yeah we all know why

Cuz the world a person lives in is his brain. Well mine just gives in...

(Chorus)

It's clear that I choose to live on I'm so used to... but still it ain't news to ditch it say when one incentive's gained and gone though you're inventive

(Chorus)

Once born you're addicted and so you depict it as good, but who kicked it?

Users just can't see the horror
Tell one if you want to bore her

(Chorus)
