Richard Marx, Ready To Fly

I've been trying to open the door To the secret of my destiny And every new road I think is the one Seems to lead right back to me

I've looked for a way to be wiser A way to be strong Now I see the answer was hiding In me all along

Chorus:

And I'm ready to fly
Over the sun
Like a rocket to heaven
And I'm ready to soar
Right through the sky
Never dreamed I'd find something to lift me so high
I've always had wings
But I wasn't ready to fly

Restless, hopeless, and misunderstood Like so many others I know So busy tryin' to keep holdin' on When I should've been letting go

I was given the gift to find it The spirit inside me But I never really imagined All I could be

Chorus:

And I'm ready to fly
Over the sun
Like a rocket to heaven
And I'm ready to soar
Right through the sky
Never dreamed I'd find something to lift me so high
I've always had wings
But I wasn't ready to fly

The answer to all of my wonder Was right in my hands Now it's time for me to discover All that I am

Chorus:

And I'm ready to fly
Over the sun
Like a rocket to heaven
And I'm ready to soar
Right through the sky
Never dreamed I'd find something to lift me so high
I've always had wings
But I wasn't ready to fly

I've always had wings Now I'm finally ready to fly
