Richard Thompson, The Wrong Heartbeat

(Richard Thompson)

Don't think my love is something that you can play with I'm not the one to spend the time of day with You learn to hide love, you lock it up or find it gone You think you need me, you think you read me From the beating of my heart

But you're listening to the wrong heartbeat O you're listening to the wrong heartbeat You're listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong

If you should see a tear, you won't see many If you should hear me sigh, it's not for any If you should greet me as I am walking along You only want to see just the shell of me You don't know the other part

Well, you're listening to the wrong heartbeat Ah, listening to the wrong heartbeat I said, you're listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong

O you're listening to the wrong heartbeat O listening to the wrong heartbeat O listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong

Don't throw your secrets where men will steal them You got to hide them, you got to seal them No matter what you try, you'll never take my love from me And if you might think that you can move me From the beating of my heart

O you're listening to the wrong heartbeat Ah, listening to the wrong heartbeat You're listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong

O yes you're listening to the wrong heartbeat You're listening to the wrong heartbeat You're listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong

You're, you're, you're listening to the wrong heartbeat O listening to the wrong heartbeat O you're listening to the wrong heartbeat My love is strong
