

Richie Kotzen, Blame On Me

Save me from my own damnation
Lead me to a revelation
I'm ending all of conversations, you complicate my life
I had enough of situations, that never turn out right

Blame it on my heart, put the blame on me
Blame it on my life, only I can set me free

Save me from my own confusion
Lead me to a revolution
I'm giving up on confrontation, I had enough of fighting
I'm giving up on hesitation, I'm flying to the light

Blame it on my heart, put the blame on me
Blame it on my life, only I can set me free

I'm giving up on situations, that complicate my life
I'm giving up on hesitation, I'm following the light

Blame it on my heart, put the blame on me
Blame it on my life, if is you wanted to me
Blame it on my mind, put the blame on me
Blame it on my life, only I can set me free
