

Richie Kotzen, Don't Wanna Lie

Try, try and tell me what your feelin now
Can you try understand Im leavin now
You dont have to wonder what it is were fighting for Cause we dont have to live no more in all this denial

I dont wanna pretend anymore I dont wanna have to lie
Maybe we can be friends if you want only if you got the time
I dont wanna pretend anymore I dont wanna have to lie
Maybe we can be friends if you want but I dont wanna have to lie

Truth, thats what Im feelin now
And its you I have been deceiving
What can I do but tell you I really am sorry
But all this talk is the reason
