

Richie Kotzen, Let's Say Goodbye

Turn out the light our story is ending
We wore this thing so far down I can't tell what I'm talkin about
Take what you want this old love in empty
And I dont have anything here that I cant live without

You say your spirits gone
I can't say that your wrong
Oh, I know I've tried
We came into it strong
Maybe we stayed in too long
Woman, lets say goodbye....

Tell me a lie so I can believe there's more than a moment to moment
Passing us by...
Look in my eyes and I'll know it's over
And I will go on from right here with the rest of my life

You say your spirits gone
I can't say that your wrong
Oh, I know I've tried
We came into it strong
Maybe we stayed in too long
Woman, lets say goodbye....
I can take a loss I can move on.....
