

Richie Kotzen, Never Be The Same

Be careful this is for real
Be careful her eyes will waste you
You got me spinning down you got me
Talking to myself
It just a little scarred of you
Your scarred me
I guess ill never be the same now that I found you
I will never be the same without you
Be cautious shes just line you
Be cautious her mind will waste you
I think im spinnin out
I know im lying to myself
I feel like you're a part of me I never will Escape
