

Richie Kotzen, Your Lies

Stoned I've falling far too deep
Is it all through deperation or are my feelings true
Lust and love I know they both complete
But I cant deny the atraction when I see you
Call it blind inspiration or a cosmic situation
I've got butterflies tied up
Am I losing touch?
Well my heart is beating faster
Is it love forever after
I can feel it
Can you feel it too?

All that I live for is waiting on a dream in your eyes
Tell me you love me tell me why
I'll believe your lies

Falling down into a tailspin
Using words that I swore I would never use again
Is a soul communication or emotional confirmation
In a language made by lover comunicated through touch
And how did it get this far?
Are you really who I think you are?
All these questions in my mind just need confirmation
Is this feeling that Im feeling really true?

All that I live for is waiting on a dream in your eyes
Tell me you love me tell me why
I'll believe your lies

I'm falling deeper into you and
I can't explain what I'm going through Deeper into you... Are my emotions justified
Or am I living blind
All that I live for is waiting on a dream in your eyes
Tell me you love me tell me why
I'll believe your lies
