Richy Nix, In My Head

Days pass and I'm tryin to find my way think that I'm livin alone well I got something to say
And we will always be the same even though we constantly change

Fuck lovin is i hate this shit it only hurts now just another relationship it doesn't work out fuck i i let the word out fuck follow with the crazy bitch
all will burn out this pressure bubbles up can i touch another one of these anti depressants man this can't be the message somebody hand me a lesson cause I'm standing here stressin while I'm planning my death this might be the last minute I stand on this planet look at me strandin i'm panickin and I can't understand it my life is a manic depressive until i land in the hamptoms I'm a stand in the damages never learn unless we take each step cause i'm feelin stronger now feelin stronger now

ain't no way to fade away so take away the razor blades you gotta contain the rage you can't trust no one and your covered in scars while we remain honest everywhere i go i know they want to fight me even though they don't know me they don't like me

Days pass and I'm alone

These words will prove that I will not live in fear

I bet you want ot know what I'm feelin like well if you want to know what i'm feelin like i feel like im the best of my time now that i know my heart is in   place there's not a single thing that you can do to me

You have everything that you need it's in your arms your arms
