

Rick Astley, Driving Me Crazy

Nobody taught me how to love
That never made me feel like giving up
Something inside you sets me free
Something about you
Makes me, me

You're driving me crazy
Just being my baby
Yeah, you're that kind of lady
You're driving me crazy

Sometimes I question why we're here
Just holding your hand takes away my fear
Something inside you sets me free
Something about you
Makes me want to be me

You're driving me crazy
Just being my baby
Yeah, you're that kind of lady
You're driving me crazy

Love is the word that people use for this
But it feels like something more
And I know, yeah, I know

You're driving me crazy
Just being my baby
Yeah, you're that kind of lady
You're driving me crazy

You're driving me crazy
Just being my baby
Yeah, you're that kind of lady
You're driving me crazy
You're driving me crazy
