

Rick Guard, Stop I Like It

Baby girl it's a big big world and there's many fish in the sea I'm trying not to roam but I'm flesh and bone so you better keep your eye on me!

I'm not trying to flirt
I'm not trying to hurt
don't even wanna be free
But when I see them walk and I hear them talk, well that's the end of me.

They got bumps and curves just for hors d'oeuvres,
and I haven't even mentioned the lips!
They got wild eyes that make me lie and legs right up to the hips!

They're from outer space they're the Fairer race and we all know who's in control

But when I look at their lips and the swing of their hips well a man can lose his soul

Stop stop stop stop stop it I like it (I like it)
stop stop stop stop stop it feels good!
You're so wrong I'm getting excited please don't stop although I know you should.

Take Adam and Eve now eve wouldn't leave till Adam tasted her wares
When a woman wants you, better say yes or you better start saying your prayers

In every place there's a pretty face of tempting variety but i'm not looking, not available Please don't tempt me!

Stop stop stop stop stop it I like it (I like it)
stop stop stop stop stop it feels good!
You're so wrong I'm getting excited
please don't stop although I know you should

Five two eyes blue skin as smooth as cream
not to have her a nightmare, but to have her a dream!
Eloquent and radiant with two first class degrees and the kind of hips which fingertips
were invented just to teaase

She gave me the eye and i ignored her she gave me the eye and i looked away she gave me the eye and so I sighed a sigh I'm weak and I'm being led astray (astray!)

Stop stop stop stop stop it I like it
stop stop stop stop stop it feels good!
You're so wrong I'm getting excited

Dark and dirty roundabout thirty with fourty two on top she knows her way and nothing's fine and likes to dance untill you drop I told her I was a singer she said she was a swinger but I didn't see her moving her feet when she stroked my thigh looked me right in the eye and said something I can't repeat

...
STOP!

I like it!!
Hahahaaa!

You're so wrong I'm getting excited
please don't stop although I know you should
please don't stop although I know you should!
