

Rick Guard, Stop It! I Like It

Baby girl, its a big big world, and there is many fish in the sea.
Im trying not to run, but Im flesh and bones, so you better keep your eye on me.
Im not trying to flip, Im not trying to hip, don't even want to be free.
And when I see them walk and hear them talk....well that' the end of me.

They got bumps and curves, just for hors d'oeuvres and I haven't even mentioned the lips.
They got wild eyes that make me lie, and licks right up to the hips.
They're from out of space, they're the fair embrace, and we all know who's on control.
But when I look at their lips and the swing of their hips, well a man can lose you sooooooooooooo.....

Stop stop stop stop stop it I like it
Stop stop stop stop stop it feels good
It's so wrong that i'm getting excited,
please don't stop, I do not know what you should.

Take Adam and Eve, now Eve wanna leave, till Adam teased her wears.
And when a woman wants you, better say yes, or you better start saying your prayers.
You're in every place, there's a pretty face, a tempting bright team,
And I'm not looking not available please don't tell meeeeeeeeeee....

Stop stop stop stop stop it I like it
Stop stop stop stop stop it feels good
It's so wrong that I'm getting excited,
please don't stop, I do not know what you should

Fight to, eyes blue, skin as smooth as cream, not to have here a nightmare, but to have here a dream
Yellow quint and radiant, with two first class degrees, and the kind hips, which fingertips where invent

She gives me an eye, and I ignore her,
She gives me an eye, and I looked away,
She gives me an eye, it's so on side-to-side,
I'm weak and I'm feeling the strength, the strength hhhh -acap
