

Rick Nelson, Everytime I Think About You

Everytime I think about you I get so mad
I just can't get along without you though you treat me so bad
Yes you're the meanest gal I know should be glad to see you go but I'll get blue
Everytime I think about you oh yeah how can I start with somebody new
When I just can't stop loving you
You've got your spell on me I'll never be free oh oh no
Everytime I think about you tears fall like rain
Gotta have my arms around you though you just bring me pain
That's why can't spite of all you've done snap your fingers and I'll run
Cause I get blue
Everytime I think about you oh yeah...
