

Rick Nelson, That Same Old Feeling

Each time I hold you well I feel good uh huh you know I do uh huh
When I'm away from you I feel like you want me to You put your arms around me and I get
I get that feeling that same old feeling if I lose that feeling guess I'll die
[guitar]
Each time you kiss me well I feel good uh huh you know I do uh huh
Don't you ever leave me if you do you'd grieve me
Gonna wrap your arms around me tight
I get that feeling that same old feeling if I lose that feeling guess I'll die
I want that feeling gotta have that feeling if I lose that feeling guess I'll die
Yes I'll die yes I'll die uh huh huh
