

Rick Price, Only Reminds Me Of You

Only Reminds Me Of You
MYMP

I see you, beside me
It's only a dream
A vision of what used to be
The laughter, the sorrow
Pictures in time
Fading to memory
How could I ever let you go
Is it too late to let you know

(chorus)

I try to run from your side
But each place I hide
It only reminds me of you
When I turn out all the lights
Even the night
It only reminds me of you

I needed my freedom

This what I've thought
But I was a fool to believe
My heart lied while you cried
Rivers of tears
But I was too blind to see
Everything we've been through before
Now it means so much more

(repeat chorus)

Only you

So come back to me
I'm down on my knees
Boy can't you see

How could I ever let you go
Is it too late to let you know

(repeat chorus 2x)
