

Rick Springfield, God Gave You To Everyone

I never wanted anyone as much I want you
While you were making everyone I never had a clue
No matter how you treated me
I'm still in love with you

Can't kick the feeling that the more I give,
the more I owe
I'm walking through the garden of the sun, it's raining though
I'm waiting for your kiss of life, but it's not gonna show

[Chorus:]
God gave you to everyone
In your summer of love
God gave you to everyone
Cause I'm not enough

We can't all be all things to everyone
You'll never spend your whole life standing in the sun
But you make me feel I don't mean anything to anyone

Looking for the kiss in your mouth
Living at the edge of my skin
Standing on the roof of heaven with the devil as it crashes in

[Chorus:]
God gave you to everyone
You told me so
God gave you to everyone
Oh Domino
Ah ah ah

[Chorus:]
God gave you to everyone
In your summer of love
God gave you to everyone
Cause I'm not enough
Ah ah ah
