

Rick Springfield, If You Think You're Groovy

(Marriot/Lane)

Now I can tell you how I feel
A broken heart is this for real
There's still so much for me to do
And to know
And to be and to feel

[Chorus:]
If you think you're groovy
You don't even move me
There's no denying
If you dare to be true

In my dreams I dreamt for two
My dreams were real but where were you
And now my dreams have all been changed
Rearranged
There's room for two
But not for you

[Chorus]

Oh you made me feel so real
Baby how I used to feel
Now I know what it's all about
Honey I found out (I found out) I found out
(I found out) I found out and I wanted to tell you

[Chorus]
