

Rick Trevino, I Only Get This Way With You

I only feel like i feel with you and nobody else,
and i only want to be with you and be myself.
But when i look in your eyes something happens to me everytime and i cant seem to find what to say to you.

(chorus)

I only get this way with you.
I only get this way with you.
I only feel this way with you.
And when were together i feel like i never ever felt before
as if im walking thru that door to love a love like i never knew.
I only get this way with you.

I want u to know how i feel when im holding u in my arms and i want u to know how i miss u when were apart.
But when i look in ur eyes something happens to me everytime,
and i cant seem to find what to say to you.

(chorus)

I only get this way with you.
I only get this way with you.
I only feel this way with you.
And when were together i feel like i never ever felt before
as if im walking thru that door to love a love like i never knew.
I only get this way with you.

Then i think about all the times i've known,
what i thought was love it was never this strong.

I only feel this way with you,
and when were together i feel like i never ever felt before,
as if im walking thru that door to love a love like i never knew.
I only get this way with u.

I only get this way with you
I only feel this way with you
