

Rick Wakeman, Love's Dream

(Liszt / Lyrics: Daltrey)

Ooh Love Ooh Love as long as love is Young
As long as love is young
Ooh Love, Ooh Love
As long as life shall last
As Long as Life shall last
The hour will come when we shall weep
On thoughts of love and pleasures past
The hour will come when we shall weep on pleasures past.
Ooh love, in love our innocence is sharing
As long as love is true
In love in love our innocence will last
Our innocent will last as sure my heart in sacred hours
Providing you my secret quest.
Ooh love sweet love as long as love is young
As long as life shall last
Ooh love sweet love as long as love is young
As long as life shall last.
