

Rick Wakeman, Orpheus Song

(Liszt / Lyrics: Benson / Daltrey)

You are my soul no strength to fight your teary hands
Please spare me I am alone kill me and you destroy yourselves.. be soothed
You take me on, make me whole
These moments can not be controlled
My shame, be my gain, together we can light the flames
Flames of life, flames of truth.
Take my life in this hell
Surrender with me to the spell
We'll go, let it show, our harmony makes music flow.
Lead me on; let my past be gone
You are my lives, Oh good my life's be gone
You are my soul, your harmony are neat so lead me on.
