

Rickie Lee Jones, Donkey Ride

You're coming into town on your donkey tonight
You're coming into town on your donkey
You're coming into town on your donkey tonight
You're coming into town, coming into, yeah yeah

It will permeate across the ages
Coming into town on your donkey tonight
And you're wearing your garland
You're coming into town on your donkey tonight
And you're wearing your garland

Shake, shake, shake, shake...
Lies, lies, lies, lies
Will lead them up, lead them up to the dominion
Lies will lead them up
Lead them up to the minion
Lies will lead them up, lead them up

You'll be going out in the spirit
You're coming into town on your donkey tonight
But you'll be going out on a cross
But you'll be going out on a cross
