

Ricky Martin, Hercules (Soundtrack English Version)

Once I dreamt
that in some place
I could be somebody
if I able to love
and I also dreamt
that if I must triumph
my grasped pride
I'll have to overcome.

One day I'll arrive
it doesn't care the distance
the way I'll find
and I'll have value
step to step I'll go
and I'll persist
at any distance
me the love will reach.

Once I saw you
it was all ideal
and although was a dream I felt you beside my,
you that these there
that I'll find you
although it takes a life, I'll never give up.

One day I'll arrive
it doesn't care the distance
the way I'll find
and I'll have value
step to step I'll go
and I'll persist
at any distance
me the love will reach.

But there of all glory, of the pride and of the value
the power of a hero
this in his heart.

One day I'll arrive
it doesn't care the distance, beside you I'll be
with your splendor,
step to step I'll go
and I'll persist
at any distance
me your life and your love I'll have.

Step to step will go
and I'll persist
at any distance
I'll have.
