Ricky Nelson, Excuse Me Baby

Excuse me baby, but you're looking mighty fine Excuse me baby, if I'm talkin' out of line Well the way you talk and the way you twist around You've got me lookin' and I just can't make a sound Excuse me baby, but you're lookin' good to me

Hey hey sweet thing, I don't your name I love you pretty baby, I hope you feel the same When the rightime comes and I want you around Well come on baby, don't you dare let me down

Excuse me baby, turn those pretty eyes my way Yeah if I could hold you honey, I'd mould you in my arms like clay I'd never ever let you out of my sight Come mornin', noon, evenin', daylight or night Excuse me baby, that's how I'm feelin', wrong or right
