

Ricky Nelson, Today's Teardrops

Today's teardrops are tomorrow's rainbows and
Tomorrow's rainbows I will share, share with you
So dry your eyes little girl dry your eyes
And we're gonna see skies of blue

Had a tough time gettin' started
Maybe just a little down hearted
All you got to do is count to ten
Maybe you'd be smiling when

Today's teardrops are tomorrow's rainbows and
Tomorrow's rainbows I will share, share with you
So dry your eyes little girl dry your eyes
And we're gonna see skies of blue

Gonna be just love and gladness
Don't wanna hear nothing bout sadness
Come a little closer come to me
With each kiss you're gonna see
