

Ricky Skaggs, Same Ol' Love

(Chris Austin/Greg Barnhill)

I'd pretend it was over, but over was a word I couldn't take
Each time I thought I'd left you
I find my way back to you the next day
I was foolish to think
That I could leave you for good
At times I thought I might
But now I know I never could.

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need
Yes, I never get enough of your same ol' love.

Other girls would have left me
If I had so much as said the word goodbye
But you stood there patiently
And watched my leaving turn into a lie
Heaven knows the kind of magic here
That keeps me hangin' on
As long as you're holding me
I know I can't go wrong.

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need
Yes, I'll never get enough of your same ol' love.

There's no chance of doing better
Or finding someone new
'Cause the truth is
They don't make 'em any better than you.

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need
Yes, I never get enough of your same ol' love.

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need
Yes, I never get enough of your same ol' love.

Your same ol' love,
Oh, your same ol' love,
Your same ol' love.

Same Ol Love...
