

Rie Fu, Decay (English Version)

You could've said a word but you turned away
Why do you always act such a passive way?
Now don't you ever think that I would suck up to you
But I still believe in you

When I was given freedom, oh all I did was flee
When I turn back there was nothing to see
You closed your doors before I could open mine
Now I know, now I see, it was a waste of time

The days go by, you never seem to learn to fly
And all you do is find the reason why
And all I wished for was for you to face your dreams
I still believe that you can fly

When I was given passion, oh I tried to cool it down
Till I found out, I couldn't say the words I wanted to say
You are the sun to lighten up my shadows, saved me
And never let it go

The days go by, you never seem to learn to fly
And all you do is find the reason why
And all I wished for was for you to face your dreams
I still believe that you can fly

There's no way I can talk to who you were ten days ago
Cause you are who you are now

When I was facing reality, I lived in fantasy
Till I put it aside in the space between you and me
If only I could reach the voice in the water
Take me there, it's gonna be much better

As days go by, we all need to learn to fly
If only I didn't care about the reason why
And all I wished for was for you to meet my dreams
I still believe that we can fly

I'm just waiting for you to stand up to it
What are you waiting for?

You could've said a word but you turned away
Why do you always act such a passive way?
Now don't you ever think that I would suck up to you
But I still believe in you
