

Rilo Kiley, Rest Of My Life

there are worse ways for a guy to spend his time than to sit and think of you i think i'd marry you just your smile
leaves me satisfied though you're not mine
so for the rest of my life
i'm gonna search for someone just like you and we tend the garden all day long watching history unfold and i'd be enough and you'd be enough and we'd grow old
for the rest of my life
yeah, for the rest of my life
